Desert Does Plan S-D Day Exhibit on December 1

Desert Does is the first Village organization to respond to an appeal by George Bond, chairman of S-D Day December 1, in connection with sponsoring a safe driving feature in the Village.

Mrs. Charlene McKinney, chairman of the Civic Affairs committee of Desert Does, announces that the organization will prepare an exhibit of a wrecked car, complete with injured manikins, and place it at an excellent vantage point on Palm Canyon Drive to remind all drivers to be careful.

Other members of Mrs. McKinney's committee are Millie Hoffman and Sally Chiatovich. Bond appealed to all civic groups to cooperate in the national safety program, preparing exhibits or programs to emphasize the need for safe driving not only on S-D Day, but throughout the entire year.

Car, Wall Struck by Hit-Runners

Two hit and run cases were reported to police, one last night and one today.

A 1950 or '51 Chevrolet, driven by an unidentified man struck a car belonging to Fred Roth, Chi Chi Restaurant employee, while it was parked at the intersection of Tahquitz Road and Palm Canyon Drive shortly after 11 p.m. yesterday. The front fender was damaged slightly, but no damage-cost estimate was made.

Rocks strewn in street on the east side of Indian Avenue slightly north of Alejo Road was reported at 5:44 a.m. today. No clues as to the identity of car or driver were found.

DAGGETT, SAN BERNARDINO COUNTY

Residents here reported that they had seen a burning plane fall. A checkup showed all scheduled sky liners that ply this district landed safely at their destination. Airmen opined the populace saw a particularly brilliant meteor.

Bill Merrill, old timer, 13 miles out of Daggett, was hit behind the ear by a falling meteorite. Bill has the smooth, heavy chunk and a scar behind his left ear to prove it. And he likes to boast he's really seen stars.

Why don't those "detective story writers" use a meteorite in their perfect murder stuff. "SOCKO," it came from the sky.

THE WEATHER

Desert area forecast — Variable cloudiness today through Friday with light showers north portion today. Locally windy today. Continued cool days with high 48-58 in upper valleys, 58-68 lower valleys. Locally cooler tonight. High here yesterday was 64, and a new low was recorded, 33.

U.S. Willing to Meet with Israel Appeal

Defense Weapons at Bargain Prices to be Shipped, Hint

WASHINGTON, (AP) — The United States may be willing to meet Israel's request for defensive weapons at bargain prices, administration sources hinted today.

They said three months ago the United States would have rejected any Israel request for arms at discount prices. But the multi-million-dollar Soviet bloc arms shipment to Egypt has placed a whole new complexion on the question, officials said.

Israeli Ambassador Abba Eban formally presented the United States with a list of anti-jet, anti-submarine and other defense weapons. He told reporters Israel wants them at "the most lenient price and credit" terms.

EGYPTIAN AMBASSADOR Ahmed Hussein promptly warned the State Department that sale of weapons to Israel might touch off an "arms race." He said Egypt "may be compelled" to buy more weapons from Communist nations or "wherever we can get them."

The United States immediately began studying the Israeli request despite Hussein's warning. The weapons list soon will be referred to the Defense Department for its consideration and Secretary of State John Foster Dulles will be sure to study it soon after his arrival from Geneva today.

Defense Secretary Charles E. Wilson told a news conference Wednesday the United States has ample stocks of any weapons Israel might need.

OFFICIALS STRESSED that the Israeli request will be put to a number of "tough tests" before any final American decision. The United States wants to be doubly sure the requested arms will be used only for defensive purposes. The United States also wants to know the size of the arms shipment to Egypt to determine whether the Communist weapons will tip the military balance in the Middle East heavily to the Arab world.

120 Association Officers Arrive

More than 120 men and women, officers of the Pacific Mutual Agencies Association, arrived at El Mirador from every section of the nation today to start the first of three days of annual conferences concerning their business.

The association, comprised of general agents of Pacific Mutual Insurance Company, will start tomorrow on their national business plans for the coming year.

City Sales Tax Receipts Show Million Dollar Climb

Taxable retail sales in Palm Springs during the last quarter showed an increase of more than a million dollars over the corresponding period in 1954. Shelby V. Langford, director of finance, reported today.

Covering the period from July through September, taxable sales were $2,846,458, compared to $1,842,720 during the three month period last year.

Forty-five new stores were in operation this year over 1954, 492 to 447.

LARGEST INCREASE was reflected in the building material group, where sales of more than $848,174 were reported in the three month period. The increase was more than $350,000, with 60 outlets this year compared to 54 in 1954.

Other comparisons follow (Number of outlets, 1955 figure, 1954 figure): Apparel group 50, 40, $159,560, $116,196; general merchandise group, 8, 8, $195,858; $139,729; jewelry stores, 6, 5, $9,043, $3,999; specialty stores group, 82, 78, $127,445, $92,685; grocery and other food stores, 23, 20, $124,111, $103,228; packaged liquor stores, 5, 5, $10,039, $7,209.

DISCUSSING PLANS for the musical portion of the first annual Founders Day program to be held at Tamarisk Park Sunday afternoon are Frances Bigelow, who is assisting Melba Bennett with arrangements, and Harry Tomlinson, director of the Palm Springs Civic Chorus. Mrs. Bennett is chairman of the sponsoring Palm Springs Historical Society. City council and Palm Springs Chamber of Commerce are co-sponsoring the event, will open at 12:30 with a box luncheon.

Democrats Plan Sunday Meeting in Banning Park

Riverside County Democratic Council will meet at 2 p.m., Sunday, at Briargate Lodge in Banning for a chicken dinner and a program which will feature addresses by Representative Sam Yorty, candidate for U. S. Senator, and Judge D. S. Saund, candidate for Congress.

John B. Strahan of Banning, Council president, will preside at the meeting, which is expected to attract a large number of interested persons from Riverside, San Bernardino and Imperial counties.

OTHER BUSINESS to be discussed at the session will be: Adoption of the permanent constitution and by-laws as prepared by a committee composed of Malcolm Jared, Indio, chairman; Herbert Hoss of Palm Springs; Ruby Clark, Corona; Robert Erwin and Richard Hammett, both of Riverside. Elect the five vice presidents nominated at the October 16 meeting in Hemet. They are: Lawrence Chapman, Palm Springs; Ruby Clark, Corona; Annette Shockley and Richard Hammett, Riverside, and Miss Winnie Phillips, Hemet.

ESTABLISH the Council's executive board and working committees to lay plans for a seminar in club organization to be conducted by experts from the California State Democratic Council and experienced club leaders from San Bernardino, to be held Sunday, December 4, in Palm Springs; and to prepare for rules, agenda and programs for the Council's primary election endorsement convention which will be held in January or April.

All interested persons are invited to attend the meeting, Strahan said.

Clothes Traded for .22 Revolver

Mark G. Sargent, of 174 N. Indian Avenue, reported his .22 cal., six-inch barreled blue steel revolver was missing from his trailer at 9 p.m. yesterday.

Sargent stopped a police car while it was on routine patrol, and told officers that he returned to his trailer about 9 p.m. and found his trailer-mate, whom he knew as Jim, was not there. He said a search revealed that Jim had left some of his possessions in the trailer, but that a suitcase, some clothes, and the gun were missing. Sargent said the articles left by Jim were at least as valuable as the missing pistol, which he said cost $65.

County Tax Bill

All 1955-56 county tax bills have been sent to property owners of record, V. M. Hyde, county tax collector announces.

Anyone not receiving a bill is asked to contact Miss Hyde, to avoid the last minute rush.

First installment of the taxes will be delinquent after Monday, December 12.

Eisenhower Starts Work on Problems

Geneva, Spending and Taxes Before President Today

By MERRIMAN SMITH United Press White House Writer GETTYSBURG, Pa., (AP) — President Eisenhower tackled some of his administration's sternest problems today from a small office in the Gettysburg Post Office.

In near freezing weather, the smiling chief executive walked into his new office at 9:46 a.m. to plunge into the problems of the Geneva Conference, government spending, and taxes.

HIS FIRST CONFERENCE was with Secretary of Commerce Sinclair Weeks. They discussed the state of national economy — and from the evidence of latest government reports were to find it happily booming.

Next to call after Weeks was Budget Director Rowland Hughes who brought a rough estimate of the fiscal 1957 budget—an estimate that would give some idea whether taxes can be cut next year.

THE MAJOR MEETING of the day, however, was scheduled for this afternoon at the Eisenhower farm when the President gets his first-hand report on the disappointing Geneva Big Four foreign ministers meeting from Secretary of State John Foster Dulles.

The President looked much more rested than he did when he arrived in Washington last week from Colorado. Before going to the office, he underwent an extensive medical examination by Dr. Howard McC. Snyder, White House physician, and Col. Thomas W. Mattingly, the heart specialist from Walter Reed Hospital in Washington.

IN THE LATE afternoon Secretary of State John Foster Dulles was due from Geneva with a first-hand account for the President on the failure of the Big Four foreign ministers to reach agreements for improving East-West relations.

The big question now facing the President and Dulles is: "What next in U.S. foreign policy?"

Shortly before his conference with Hughes, Mr. Eisenhower also planned to consult briefly with Commerce Secretary Sinclair Weeks, who missed a meeting with the President Wednesday because of bad flying weather between Washington and Gettysburg.

BUT BEFORE beginning his busy day at his temporary office in the downtown post office building, Mr. Eisenhower had an appointment with his physician, Maj. Gen. Howard McC. Snyder, and Col. Thomas W. Mattingly, chief of cardiology at Washington's Walter Reed Hospital. They were to give the Chief Executive his first cardiographic examination since he left Fitzsimmons Army Hospital in Denver last Friday.

There were to be no new X-rays of the president's chest. White House Secretary James Hagerty said these would await Mr. Eisenhower's next visit to Washington sometime in early December.

Wild Uranium Rush Starts at Pumpkin Buttes, Wyo.

PUMPKIN BUTTES, Wyo., (AP) — Hundreds of uranium prospectors charged into the frozen Pumpkin Buttes country today, opening a land rush which law officers feared would bring frontier-type violence to Northeastern Wyoming.

More than 300 prospectors, bundled against the bitter sub-zero cold, left their trailers, tents and camp fires at the edge of the Pumpkin Buttes strip at 10 a.m. MST.

The land was thrown open to prospectors to end much of the bitter dispute between prospectors and ranchers. But more court

Engine Trouble Delays Dulles on Return Home

GETTYSBURG, Pa., (AP) — The White House said today that the presidential plane Columbine developed engine trouble over the Atlantic Ocean while flying Secretary of State John Foster Dulles home from Geneva, but landed safely at Bermuda.

The Columbine landed on three engines at Kindley Air Force Base in Bermuda.

A Military Air Transport plane was dispatched to Bermuda to pick up Dulles and his party and bring them on to the United States.

After the Columbine developed trouble in one engine, a rescue plane was dispatched and escorted the crippled Columbine on the last leg of its trip into Bermuda.

Humphrey Sees More Prosperity Ahead in Nation

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Treasury Secretary George M. Humphrey said today that if Americans "buy, build and improve with confidence tempered with prudence" the nation will reach new peaks of prosperity.

Humphrey, in a speech prepared for the annual meeting of the American Petroleum Institute, said the administration's flexible economic policies have contributed to current prosperity by making credit more or less available in response to need.

Such flexibility, Humphrey added, also has contributed to halting inflation so that the value of the dollar "has decreased only one-half of one cent" in the past 24 years.

Humphrey said that the continued prosperity of America is "peculiarly a responsibility" of such a group as the petroleum industry. "For it is from such industries as yours that we constantly get new products and new uses for products which lead to the new jobs, higher income and better living, which is the progress of America."

In a speech last night at Los Angeles Humphrey said that with proper organization Republicans can "sweep into power in local, county, state and national tickets" in the 1956 elections.

Humphrey, at a $100-a-plate GOP fund-raising dinner last night, urged members to score a resounding victory by "organizing from the precincts to the presidency."

5 Missing Boys Found Unharmed

CHICAGO (AP) — Five teenage boys who were missing from their homes in suburban Stickney Township have been found unharmed.

The boys left their homes at a time when Chicago was still jittery over the unsolved slayings of three other boys a month ago.

The Cook County sheriff's office said that state police picked up the four missing boys, all 15-year-olds, hitchhiking southward near Springfield, about 150 miles southwest of here.

The other boy was arrested near Kankakee in a stolen car.

PRESS STOPPERS

LANCASTER UP — Two Marine Panther jets collided near here today and one crashed at the outskirts of the city, killing the pilot, the sheriff's office reported.

CHICAGO UP — The Democratic National Committee voted today not to require a "loyalty oath" from delegates to the party's 1956 nominating convention.

TEHRAN, Iran UP — A would-be assassin failed in an attempt to shoot and kill Iranian Premier Hussein Ala today, but he slightly injured the Premier in the neck when he threw his pistol in despair. The assailant was arrested immediately.

BULLETIN UP — A storm front moved southward across Southern California today and brought rain showers to coastal areas and as much as seven inches of snow to the mountains.

TWO SOLID GAINS FOR U.S. IN GENEVA TALKS

By LYLE C. WILSON
United Press Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON (U.P.)—The United States racked up two solid gains from the Geneva conference despite the dismal circumstances of its adjournment.

The influence of U. S. foreign policy among the Western allies should increase now. The Russians just about assured that they expect today it is practically in-destroyed hopes of an early new deal in foreign affairs.

THE UNITED STATES gained these specific advantages from the Geneva wreckage:

1. President Eisenhower and later, Secretary of State John Foster Dulles, did a top grade job of persuading onlookers that U. S. foreign policy is peaceful.

2. Soviet Foreign Minister Vyacheslav M. Molotov did a better job of persuading onlookers that it is not possible at this time to make with the Russians reasonable agreements to protect world peace.

THE ONLOOKERS who counted most among the world audience which attended the two Geneva conferences were the peoples of Great Britain and France. They live close under the throats of atomic artillery and the belly doors of atomic bombers.

French and British men and women have been suspicious throughout the cold war period that the United States was a trigger-happy nation willing to risk a new world war. Political parties in both countries have made campaign use of French and British fear.

British Socialists made the most of it. The politicians who played such politics at the expense of human anxiety had another campaign gimmick. It was to demand a top level meeting with the Russians looking toward an end to the cold war.

PRESIDENT EISENHOWER and Dulles agreed, finally, to last Summer's summit meeting largely to give British Conservatives an answer to the Socialists who were campaigning promising an early conference if they were returned to power.

Open diplomacy openly arrived at, is the phrase which best describes procedures at the two Geneva conferences. The public saw or quickly was told all that took place. Western hopes were blasted. But they had been faint hopes, at best. The Eisenhower administration is confident the American public had been conditioned for a Geneva bust.

AS IT LOOKS from here, the United States has gone far publicly to prove to its allies that effort in Washington has been and will continue to be to keep the peace. But the outcome of the Geneva gamble on Soviet good faith indicates the correctness of the U. S. attitude that the Russians respect force and decisive action—not much else.

U. S. policy will be to continue large and burdensome national defense spending, to support the United Nations as a bulwark against aggression and to persuade its allies to spend adequately for national defense.

If there is no actual hot war, the cold war has become colder and the North Atlantic Treaty Organization becomes again the chief Western instrument of foreign policy.

It is not likely that British Socialists soon again will invite popular support with a promise to go partying with Molotov.

Kefauver Says Huge Subsidies Handed Utilities

WASHINGTON (U.P.)—Sen. Estes Kefauver has demanded from the administration a detailed explanation of what he called "huge subsidies" granted to the private electric utility industry under the rapid tax write-off program.

The Tennessee Democrat estimated that electric utilities will get tax benefits of about six billion dollars by the end of 1958 under the administration's program for fast tax write-offs for new power plants which strengthen the nation's defenses.

"A subsidy of such proportion... should be subject to extremely close scrutiny under war conditions," Kefauver said last night. "But under the condition which exists today it is practically incomprehensible."

City Sales Tax $15,000 Ahead

Sales tax receipts received by the city during October continued to run way ahead of the 1954 mark, according to Shelby V. Langford, director of finance.

Receipts collected were $8,240, as compared to $5,903 in October of 1954.

Total receipts for the first four months of this fiscal year are $47,386, an increase of almost one third over the 1954 mark of $32,883.

Italy Planning Drive to Regain World Position

By CHARLES M. McCANN

United Press Staff Correspondent

Italy is about to start a vigorous attempt to regain its position as a top-ranking power.

President Giovanni Gronchi, Premier Antonio Segni and Foreign Minister Gaetano Martino have teamed to get the campaign going.

It is indicated that they hope to make the present Big Four set-up the Big Five, with Italy added to the United States, Great Britain, France and Soviet Russia.

THE CAMPAIGN will be started by the Italian ambassadors in the big European capitals and Washington.

Linked with the campaign is the hope that Italy may be admitted to United Nations membership under the "package" deal, now under consideration, to add 18 countries to the present 60 in the world organization.

As the first move in the attempt to restore Italy to the place it used to occupy in world affairs, the ambassadors to the United States, Britain, France, Russia, West Germany and the North Atlantic Treaty Organization were called to Rome this week.

They have engaged in a series of consultations with Gronchi, Segni and Martino, planning tactics.

THE FIRST OBJECTIVE to see that Italy is consulted in advance on all matters of major interest by the United States, Britain and France.

Italians were very pleased when Secretary of State John Foster Dulles flew to Rome for talks before he went to the Big Four foreign ministers conference in Geneva.

Advices from Rome say that Gronchi, Segni and Martino will bid to get Italy in on discussions not only on continental European affairs but on those of the entire Mediterranean area including the Middle East.

That the government's interest in widening Italy's sphere of influence extends to Southeast Asia and the Far East is shown by the fact that Foreign Minister Martino is about to visit Japan, Thailand, India, Pakistan, and Ceylon.

President Gronchi plans to visit Washington early next year.

Back in Versailles Treaty days, Italy was one of the allied Big Four with the United States, Britain and France.

LOS ANGELES, (U.P.)—Police searched today for five persons who escaped from city jail by climbing a ladder and sliding through an open window to freedom on the sidewalk below.

First Christmas Letter Reported

COLUMBIA, S. C. (U.P.)—The post office today reported its first 1955 letter to Santa Claus from four-year-old Susan Morris.

Susan asked for "some clothes for me and my doll baby... and an Easter egg."

Jailers said the men were in street clothes Wednesday when they were brought to a bathroom where prisoners change into jail clothing. The men made their daring escape after workmen had left the ladder in the room.

The escapees were William E. Anderson, 38, and George White, 41, sentenced to 120 days each on drunk charges; David Lopez, 29, and Richard Diaz, arrested on narcotics charges; and Raymond Durza, sentenced to one-year term on a narcotics violation.

Imagine hanging around glorified saloons for 27 years as an entertainer and never awakening the next morning with an overhang. Lenny Kent, comedian, in the Starlite Room, says so. "And you know why?" Its no secret. I just don't drink," said Lenny. But does he eat those cigarettes. One every minute.

For many years now have heard our good citizens squawking about street lights here and there in our fair city. Nothing has been done by several councilmanic bodies who have come and gone during those years and the present city council members who have heard the same complaints.

But up comes Joe Leonard with in my opinion a terrific idea!

"LET EVERYBODY plant a palm tree in front of their home and then illuminate it. Not set fire to it but to put a light in its palm fronds. Something like those that are illuminated on Palm Canyon Drive. What a beautiful city we would have!" Joe believes. So do I.

He went on to say that in this fashion there would be no additional taxes. The appearance of our streets would be immeasurably improved and the entire city would be beautified. It doesn't have to be a big palm tree. "Buy a little one. Plant it and water it. Watch it grow to maturity." That's what Joe believes would happen here. After all, this is PALM Springs. Palm. Get it?

AND ROSE ROSENBERG who climbs every sale with "Everybody loves Palm Springs," informs me that she has moved her realty office to 505 North Palm Canyon Drive. She has tried living everywhere including Florida, but always returns.

Come next April when all good citizens in four precincts will be asked to cast their ballots for four councilmen, the incumbents, namely Mayor Florian Boyd, Ruth Hardy, Earle Strebe and Ted McKinney will be up for re-election. All but one of them has so informed me with the exception of McKinney and I am informed that he will too.

AS IT STANDS NOW there are no contesting candidates and there is every likelihood that all four will be back in office again. So, if that all comes to pass, we will see the same familiar faces behind the council table for at least two more years after the next election. The carry-over councilmen are Frank Miller, Jerry Nathanson and Jerry Sanborn.

Doodles Weaver, without a doubt the zaniest comedian in California today or for that matter in the nation and whose antics are similar to that of Jerry Lewis, is ripping them apart in the Palm House.

Sale of Palm Desert properties, according to pretty reliable authority, is darn close. And Cliff Henderson, if the deal goes through, will take it easy for a while but not for good, if I know that Cliff Henderson.

DOODLES WEAVER, acclaimed as one of the craziest comedians on the stage today, is playing a return engagement at Vic Sudaha's Palm House. Doodles has won national acclaim for himself in motion pictures, TV and on the stage. He is particularly widely known in Southern California and has an immense following. Patrons, and other performers on the same bill may be quickly drawn into Weaver's act. Mimicry is one of his greatest abilities as a performer. As a matter of fact, he can do most anything on the stage and generally gets away with it, receiving a great amount of lusty applause.

Cabazon Given Status of City

Cabazon now is officially a city. Word was received yesterday by L. D. Tallent, president of the Chamber of Commerce and newly elected councilman who is expected to be mayor, that official certification has been granted by the state.

First official city council meeting is scheduled for 8 p.m., Monday.

One of the first matters to be considered will be the hiring of personnel, including a city clerk, building inspector, treasurer, police chief and health inspector. Another will be the granting of a license to Jerry Kosselt, incorporation promoter, to operate a poker parlor.

Clues to Beach Slaying Sought

REDONDO BEACH, (U) — Detectives combed the waterfront today for clues in the mysterious slaying of Ted McGill, 39, member of a prominent Redondo Beach family.

McGill was stabbed to death early Wednesday following a tour of several bars, police said. His body was found slumped to the floor of a city park restroom by a movie bit player, Robert Davis. Davis told officers he and a friend were in the washroom earlier and found McGill drunk and belligerent. Davis said he and his friends left after Davis had tried to pick a fight.

Davis said he returned several hours later to find McGill, nephew of beach developer Frank Heischman, dead. Both Davis and his friend were released after questioning.

Christmas Seal X-ray Unit to be in Village 3 Days

The Christmas Seal Chest X-ray unit will be in the Palm Springs area on November 29, 30 and December 1, according to Mrs. Marge Caylor, District Public Health Nurse.

The first day will be devoted to school projects except for the evening hours, 6 to 8 p.m., when the unit will be available to the public in downtown Palm Springs, on Palm Canyon Drive.

Wednesday hours at the latter location will be 8 a.m. until noon, and 1 until 4 p.m., with evening hours scheduled 6 to 8 p.m.

On Thursday, December 1, the hours will be 9 a.m. until noon and 1 until 4 p.m. In all downtown projects free X-rays will be available to adults only.

The school project will be an X-ray follow up on all pupils who have shown positive reaction to tuberculin tests. These tests were recently completed in the Palm Springs District school. All adults living in homes where children have shown reactions to the tuberculin tests have been urged to secure X-rays while the unit is in the area.

Calling attention to the fact that tuberculosis is on the increase among children in Riverside county, Mrs. Caylor said, "children can best be protected from the disease by making certain that they are not subjected to repeated doses of infection by close contact with adults who have it, usually in the symptomless stages. All persons in homes where there are children should have periodic X-rays."

Mrs. Stanley Rosin is chairman in charge of registrations at the unit.

Jury Awards John Hollinger $5,000 Damages

John Hollinger, 33, who was injured in an accident in 1950 while on duty as a member of the Palm Springs Police department, yesterday was awarded $5,000 damages following a two-day jury trial in Judge Hilton McCabe's superior court in Indio.

The jury ruled in favor of Hollinger, now a salesman with Padlock Pools, and against Kenneth F. Briody, a painting contractor formerly of Palm Springs and now of Albuquerque, New Mexico. An employee was driving Briody's truck at the time of the accident.

Testimony revealed that Hollinger had stopped a motorist on November 19, 1950, and while he was talking to the driver the truck struck him.

Hollinger resigned from the police force in April of 1951.

Three Children Killed in Blaze

CHICAGO, (U) — A brother, sister, and baby girl were killed early today when fire swept their home and their bodies were brought to the hospital where their mother was on duty as a nurse.

The dead were identified as Louis Kohler, 19, his sister, Betty Ann, 15, and their four-month-old half-sister, Catherine Eileen Killips.

Jack Killips, 46, the stepfather of the two older children and father of the youngest, was severely burned and was in critical condition at the Little Company of Mary Hospital, where his wife is a nurse.

EDITOR'S CORNER

by Oliver B. Jaynes

NOT BY HAPPEN CHANCE—Business men and residents of Palm Springs and this whole resort area must not lose sight of the importance of the controlled development. I discussed this subject a month ago and received much comment about it. But many people still do not realize its importance.

I was talking to a very successful business man of Los Angeles the other day who said he has been coming to Palm Springs frequently for the past 15 years and used to own a home here. He said that Palm Springs could have been twice the size today if growth had not been held back by a group which controlled the city government. Let's suppose that had happened. If the community had grown that fast what sort of a place would it be today? Certainly it would not have had the reputation and high character that Palm Springs now enjoys. In order to grow rapidly all restrictions would have been thrown to the winds and let come what may. It doesn't take much imagination to visualize what the result would have been.

One of the reasons why so many people who wanted to establish businesses here became disgusted with Palm Springs was that controls were sometimes exercised to keep out competition. This was, of course, unfair and unwise. But the over-all policy of keeping the development of this resort in hand has paid off. One needs but travel around the country and see what has happened to resort areas which have been allowed to grow too fast — and "kill the goose that laid the golden egg." All cities — large and small — now realize the necessity of controlling development.

Take the city of Los Angeles for example. For 40 years the Chamber of Commerce has been promoting industrial growth. Now look at the trouble they're in with smog. Smith Griswold, Los Angeles County air pollution control officer, made this statement the other day: "Civilization has long passed a point where communities can be molded and shaped by chance and happen-chance alone." It is a little late for Los Angeles to begin limiting its industrial plants to those which will not increase the smog menace.

Even though controls have been abused in the past (and might even be to some extent today), the community is far better off than had it gone to the other extreme. We still have one of the outstanding resort communities in the nation — and have intelligent city planning and development control to thank for it.

There is evidence at hand that an era of vast development of this whole Coachella Valley is just getting under way. Many new business interests are coming here. Some of them do not realize the importance of maintaining the high standards that have prevailed. They don't understand why restrictions are placed on their business establishments. "Don't you want Palm Springs to grow?" — is a stock question. The answer, of course, is that this resort area is bound to grow because of its many natural advantages. Brighter prospect of selling the Mt. San Jacinto Tramway bonds make this even more apparent.

During this era of rapid growth we must not let it get out of hand and later find ourselves in the position of other cities like Los Angeles when it is too late to do anything about mistakes of the past. We hope that people coming here for the first time will see how important it is to everyone — business interests and residents alike — to maintain the high standards that make Palm Springs so attractive to so many people today.

VOICE of the DESERT

QUESTION — Why should there be taxation on a 25-year lease on Indian land when there was no tax on the 5-year lease? Is this not a constitutional matter which has been decided in Washington? — G.A.

ANSWER — Taxation of the fee to Indian owned land is not permitted until a patent has been issued to the individual, and the trusteeship of the United States government released.

There is a provision in California law, however, which provides for the taxation of a leasehold or "possessory interest" in tax exempt property. Three principle factors determine the value of a possessory interest.

1. The market value of the property.
2. The earning ability of the property.
3. The length and terms of the lease.

A five year lease with a thirty day cancellation clause would have no market value, whereas a twenty-five year lease with a renewal option could be of considerable value, depending upon the terms of the lease. The constitutional matter mentioned in the question would not involve the assessment of a possessory interest, but evidently relates to the direct taxation of Indian owned land.

NEW YORK — John W. Stanton, manager of the Washington office of Thomas Cook & Son travel agency, on accommodations for Ornithologists have found that birds sing an average of 18½ hours daily most of the year.

DENVER — President Eisenhower asking the Russians not to start an arms race in the Near East.

"We do not intend to contribute to an arms competition in the Near East because we do not think such a race would be in the true interest of any of the participants."

GENEVA — An American spokesman on progress of diplomatic talks between the United States and Peiping governments: "The central issue still is the 17 American prisoners."

THIS SIDE of The Sun

By Phat

My wardrobe is depleted. I know the time of year. The old grab is repeated. The Rummage Sales are here.

Eternal vigilance is the price of comfort. Just about the time the old shoes slip on innocent of shoe-horn, the time the slacks get pleasantly baggy, and other items of clothing, albeit not so pretty as they were when they came off the shelves and/or hangers, are so comfortable, they're gone, at this time of year, when I seek them. Inquiry reveals that they are being renovated and repaired for a Rummage Sale. It all happens while I am gone from home and slaving over a hot typewriter. Unable to protect myself.

THIS YEAR, I suffered a deep-seated loss. We are about to change our address and in the process of routing out material accumulated during the past almost a decade, Mrs. G. came upon a private cache of mine. Four old-style Victrola albums of the records they used to make in the old days when you couldn't get the deep notes. They don't sound so good on the modern machine but they were collector's items. There were 48 of them which I occasionally snuck on the Capehart along with the wild Benny Goodman, Artie Shaw and Duke Ellington records when she was far away in Chicago, visiting the grandchildren. First thing I knew when I came home one evening was that the four old battle-scarred albums (not the records, they are all in good shape) were out with purloined slacks, shoes and even another hat. Further inquiry revealed that they were ticketed for St. Paul's in the Desert's annual rummage sale. "Why, no one will want those old records," I expostulated. "They are 40 years old even if they do play like new because of my loving care." "How do you know?" was the comforting answer. "There must be some one in this town as balmy about old records as you are." So it was good-bye old-time musical comedies, operas, classics and maybe a Dixieland or two.

WHO KNOWS but the desert area's famous old black hat, the one with the hole in it, may yet hang on the hat rack in the House of Representatives cloak room in Washington, D. C.? I understand that Harry Oliver, who offered himself as a candidate for Congress to succeed John Phillips, who is about to retire, has gained redoubtable support. Am told the Toastmasters' Club is going to take up his candidacy and its members are going to exercise their vocal chords and forensic talent on why the desert should have a desert rat in the halls of Congress. He'll be right at home there in the hall of tall tales—but his will be funnier.

JUST HAPPENED to think of something. When Cabazon citizens voted to incorporate the community and to shelter draw poker, they became the 13th Riverside county city. There have been 12 for years. Now, will that 13 prove unlucky for the boys (and girls) who seek to improve their hands? They had better not try it on Fridays. That brings up another thought. In 1954 there was only one Friday, the 13th. In 1955, only one. But in 1956 there will be three. January, April and July. The most such Jinx combinations in many years. No time to try to fill an inside straight.

THERE was a loud bang in the office the other morning and someone asked: "Did something drop?" And the smart alec answer they got was: "Just the temperature."

GROWING PAINS

Congressional Report

By Representative John Phillips

When a member of a legislative body comes back to his district, at the end of a session, he knows that he will face an interesting experience. He has been completely absorbed, in Washington or in Sacramento, for anything from four to ten months, to the practical exclusion of everything else, on matters which the legislative body has considered "important."

He presumes he will be asked about these matters, and he prepares himself to talk about them, and braces himself, so to speak, for the controversial ones. Instead, the chances are the questions asked him will be on very different subjects, some of them of such minor importance on the legislative calendars, that he has to go and look them up.

I RECALL, a few years back, after a highly controversial session, involving actions that went deep into our conceptions of the republic and what a government could or could not do, that the first question I met, in several meetings, had to do with a matter of such little general importance that it had taken less than five minutes on the floor of the house, on the so-called consent calendar. It was however of personal interest to many people in California.

This is no criticism of the system, nor of the questions; rather the opposite. I have contended that the writers of the Constitution deliberately made the Representatives run every two years. The Senators provide continuity and tenure, but they can get out of touch with their people. There is no way a Representative can lose this touch; he has to come back every two years and run for office. He knows what the people are thinking about and interested in.

THERE IS A POSSIBILITY that some of these days the House members may be elected for four years, with the terms overlapping, so that half of them are elected in one election and the other half two years later. Under present conditions, that idea has merit, and of course we do that in the California Senate, but I think we will sacrifice a little of that biennial contact with the people at home. It is not always the Representative who acquaints the people with what the Congress has been doing; it is more often the people who tell him what they have been thinking about, which is later translated into Congressional action.

So now that I'm home, I am interested as always in what the people are asking and talking about. Did I find any difference in the attitudes of the people of Europe towards this nation, as compared with previous trips?

Yes, decidedly. There is an atmosphere of "confidence which was lacking in 1933 and 1932, and a personal regard for confidence in the President."

This sort of thing is hard to describe. It has to be felt. It was evidenced by the profound and widespread shock all over the world resulting from the news flash of the President's heart attack. I even had a personal letter from the old German physician at the spa to which Mrs. Phillips and I go when we can, and to which I hope to go again next year, telling me of his experiences with heart attacks and his successful use of oxygen. Unfortunately for me, he writes a German script as hard to read as my own English handwriting.

What about the Status of Forces Treaty? I don't like it, but I also know there has been exaggeration of the cases involved. A House committee is investigating it this Summer and may have some suggestions when we get back.

WHAT THE COUNTRY, at large may not yet realize is that we were on a farm price toboggan in 1952, with the parity ratio off 19 points, and headed down. In the first part of the present administration we started to level off, but still dropped another 9 points.

In 1955, with the new farm act going into effect, the variation has stayed in a two or three point difference. Instead of $700,000 a day storage charges alone, but milk and cheese stores are down two-thirds. It is better to dispose of it, to the tune of $2 billion moved by Mr. Benson, than it is to sit on it and ride wishfully into bankruptcy.

SAN FRANCISCO, — Otto Bell, repentant turncoat GI who was freed from an Army guardhouse today on a federal court order: "I'm going to do everything in my power to be a good American... everything in my power to destroy Communism."

"Most people think conditions are pretty good just as they are, Senator... Maybe your record of doing nothing will be an asset..."

Washington Report

WASHINGTON — Russia's obdurate scuttling of the Big Four conference is already being countered with a far-reaching plan to speed up the rearming of West Germany.

A major feature of this counter measure is a $2,000,000,000 bond issue to be sold to the public in both the U.S. and Germany.

Purpose of the unique proposal is to assist Germany in raising an estimated $15,000,000,000 that will be required over a three-year period to create its new army, navy and airforce.

In addition to these bonds, the U.S. would contribute another $3,000,000,000 in direct loans and military aid of various kinds. Already $500,000,000 in American weapons and supplies, including food, are stockpiled in Europe for equipping the new German armed forces.

Secretary Dulles is discussing this momentous plan with British, French and Bonn authorities before returning to Washington.

He has informed them the U.S. proposes to place this crucial financial program before the NATO foreign ministers who are scheduled to confer in Paris around the middle of December. This meeting will consider next year's military budgets and other recommendations agreed on by the NATO defense ministers last month.

American and Bonn officials have been discussing the rearmament finances for some time. A report on these backstage negotiations was one of the first things considered by President Eisenhower following his return from Denver. The summary has also been presented to the National Security Council.

Senator Walter George (D. Ga.), chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee, Speaker Sam Rayburn, Tex., and other key leaders of Congress have been apprised of the matter. They will take it up at the President's forthcoming meetings with the law makers.

WHAT IT SAYS — The Pentagon report stresses that Bonn expects the U.S. to bear a large portion of the rearmament costs.

On that the report states significantly: "The Adenauer government, taking into account only strictly military expenditures, estimates the total for the three-year period at about $15,000,000,000, less than half of which it expects to be paid by the German taxpayer."

The summary questions the view of Bonn officials about Germany's inability to pay for rearming. It is pointedly contended this is both under-estimated and less than what other NATO countries are providing.

FOREIGN FLASHES — South Korea is getting two U.S. destroyer-escorts. They are the Muir and Sutton, which will be turned over in Boston in January, and will constitute the largest ships in the ROK navy, which now consists of LST's and frigates. Czechoslovakia has a trade mission in Burma trying to negotiate a barter deal for 100,000 tons of rice. The Czechs are offering a wide variety of manufactured goods, including electrical equipment. They are also making no secret that there is a shortage of food in the satellites. The Chinese Reds have re-imposed martial law along the coast opposite Quemoy and Matsu Islands. Also the Communists are staging sizable ground, air and naval maneuvers in this explosive area. The Chinese Nationalists are countering with similar exercises of their own. The Laotian government has called off true talk with Communist guerrillas, after the latter made a series of raids while the negotiations were in progress. The discussions were arranged largely through the "good offices" of India.

By BENNETT CERF

A RED-HEADED COUNTESS who cut a wide swath in the early eighteenth century was responsible for Tom Costain turning to fiction writing at the age of fifty-five. At least, that's what he told Feature Writer Ed Wallace. This countess, said Tom, had a husband who was arrested in Scotland and imprisoned in the Tower of London. The redhead broke into King George's castle, pleaded for the release of her husband, and when he ordered her thrown out, hung to his coatails, and couldn't be pried loose. His Majesty pulled her the length of the castle when he went to lunch, finally cried, "Get this cursed wench away from me and release her cursed husband, so I can eat my meal in peace!"

Were it not for this surefingered countess, Costain might still be a magazine editor.

HELENE V. MALNICK of North Hollywood was the 10,000th person to sign for a 5-acre land tract through the office of Colonel E. B. Moore of Joshua Tree. With the great amount of interest in 5-acre tracts in the desert area, Joshua Tree can now claim the title of the "Five Acre Capitol of the World."

Cathedral City Businessmen Complete Slate of Officers

CATHEDRAL CITY — A meeting of the Cathedral City Business Association was held this week, and the organization elected the rest of its officers.

Orvil Zappe, president of the association, announced that Ray Abby of Rupp's Supply was elected co-chairman of the organization, Ivan Sharp of John Sharp Realty was elected secretary, and Vernon Krings of Chevron Service station as treasurer.

Members of the organization made suggestions as to projects to be undertaken by the association. Among them were discussions of future problems of off-street parking and out-of-town retail merchandising.

A suggestion was made from the floor to reconsider the naming of the organization, on which no immediate action was taken, and the setting of boundaries for membership in the organization.

It was decided by the group that the area taken in by the group would run from Araby Point to Thunderbird Country Club. It was pointed out by Zappe that no merchant was under obligation to join the association, but all "are encouraged, if it is their desire, to attend."

The Cathedral City Area Business Association had a display booth at the Palm Springs rally and it was manned by members of the organization. They distributed brochures on Cathedral City and Highway 111. The report of the project was very favorable.

Colonel E. B. Moore Files 10,000th 5-Acre Land Tract

Colonel E. B. Moore, of Joshua Tree, announces that he has filed the 10,000th 5-acre tract. Helene V. Malnick of North Hollywood has become a desert enthusiast, and has signed up for the 10,000th 5-acre tract. Her friend, Edna W. Sharp, also of North Hollywood, followed with applying for the 10,001st tract. They have a group of Hollywood people around them, forming a small community of ten tracts.

What was originally expected to be a pastime desert hobby in obtaining a small tract lease has unexpectedly developed into a southern California industry. The fever for small tracts in the sunny desert has spread rapidly, not only to all of southern California, but throughout the entire country.

THE IDEA OF LIVING in perpetual sunshine in the High Joshua Desert has taken on rapidly, and the Small Tract movement is snowballing daily, reaching out to practically every state in the Union, to Hawaii, Germany, Japan and Saudi Arabia. The Small Tract Act was passed by Congress June 1, 1938 with amendments. Initially, a small group of Hollywood moving picture people chose land east of Twenty-nine Palms, for 5-acre tract development. For one reason or another these people did not continue their interest. However, where they left off, the general public moved in, and have been doing it in ever increasing numbers ever since.

THE INVESTMENT in acquiring a small tract is small, and literally thousands upon thousands of citizens have taken advantage of this opportunity offered by the United States government. From Morongo through the Joshua Tree area to Twenty-nine Palms, there have been 43,000 5-acre tracts filed on. Colonel Moore reports that his office, having now passed the 10,000th mark, sees no signs of a permanent let-up.

One good feature of this influx of people to the desert is the benefit to the entire communities. When these thousands of families acquire their land and build cabins they spend a great deal of money for building materials, services, foods, rentals, motel lodgings, and for furniture, or other necessities needed in establishing a new home.

ALMOST ALL of the merchants up and down the area, the real estate people and many others have benefited greatly by this influx of people into the area. Many of them are so impressed with the location, climate, etc., of Joshua Tree that they select nice residential or business property in the area.

The records of the Land Office show spectacular results. In the year 1949 fifty-two requests were made for United States Patents for 5-acre tracts. During the intervening years the increase was rapid, and in 1955, 1780 requests for United States Patents were obtained during the first ten months. It is conservative to estimate an expenditure of funds from $2,000 to $3,000 for each cabin. Some tracts have nice desert homes, of $5,000 to $6,000 value.

These property value additions to the tax roll of the county of San Bernardino add up to the astounding total of $16,000,000 property. All of this goes on the tax rolls of the county by the activity and

Area Building Totals $81,118

Building permits within the Desert Empire reached a total of $81,118, with a dozen persons taking out building permits. Highest amount listed was a new home and car port for E. E. Lowery of Thunderbird Country Club for $26,500.

Others listed were: R. A. Boyd, Cathedral City, date shop and snack bar, $1,000; George Cameron, Jr., Thunderbird Country Club, enlarge living room, $6,400; S. D. Estes, Cathedral City, dwelling building, $21,600; W. W. Catherwood, Cathedral City, carport, $880; Wiktor Maliszewski, Cathedral City, dwelling, $4,032; Porto Domenico, Cathedral City, dwelling, $4,088; William R. Hubbard, Cathedral City, garage, $624; Vernon L. Cox, Cathedral City, dwelling and carport, $9,398; Mr. and Mrs. George Roberts, Cathedral City, cabana and ramada, $836.

NEXT CHRISTMAS IS COMING TOO!

If you love Christmas, but hate the year-end crop of bills for gifts, taxes and other expenses, here's a fine way to put aside all worries. It's the 1956 Bank of America Christmas Club and people all over our town have discovered it's the made-to-order way to save for the expenses they'll have. All you do is figure the amount you'll need then save systematically, making deposits of $1, $5 or $10 weekly for 50 weeks. Next year your check for the full amount saved plus interest will come in mighty handy, and you'll have real peace of mind. It's the best way to save for Christmas, so why not join today?

GOT YOUR EYE ON A BUY?

Wonderful is certainly the word for the 1956 cars. Maybe one already has caught your eye—but lack of ready cash keeps you away. If so, take this hint from many of your neighbors and finance your buy through Bank of America Timeplan. Arrangements are easy and you can pay out of income in small monthly instalments. Over 2,000 California car dealers offer low-cost Timeplan financing or, if you prefer, come into our bank. Timeplan is a good idea if you'd rather stick with your old "bus," too. You can finance an overhaul, top-to-bottom reconditioning or repair—all you need to get your car in tip-top condition, all at one time.

CONGRATULATIONS

To the thousands of residents of Palm Springs and surrounding area who occupy Mobile Homes, on their successful sponsorship of the fifth annual Trailer Rally last weekend. It emphasized again the importance of Mobile Home residents to the economy of our community.

THE CHIEF EXPORT of the Desert Empire is the Deglet Noor variety of date. The palms, heavily laden on the trees, cover hundreds of acres in the Coachella Valley. Fruit is borne on female trees, and a good crop depends on high temperatures, low humidity, absence of rain, and an abundance of water in the soil. The tree can live for 100 years.

Ramon Trailer Park Relaxes after Big Rally

The big Trailer Rally is over and Ramon Trailer Park is becoming normal again after a full week of preparation carried on by many of the park residents.

Mrs. Marvel Holman was in charge of the Hobby Show which attracted much interest as their exhibits covered a large variety of subjects. She was also in charge of sales and distribution of souvenir hats worn by two thousand strong during the rally. This in itself was quite an undertaking as many girls were required to carry out the program, but it was done in the spirit of fun.

The week was finished with a chuck wagon breakfast and now will be forgotten until another year with the satisfaction of knowing that it was a job well done.

The most important subject in the park now is the weather. The warm sun is missed, but the cool weather adds more attendance to the Guys and Dolls Coffee hour and the crowd increases every week. The Guys served last week to a full house and the party was enjoyed by seventy-five or more people.

Many guests enjoyed the Park over the weekend. Mr. and Mrs. John Hart and Mr. and Mrs. Dan Riordan of Rosemead, visited the Elys. Eddie Dewhurst of Los Angeles visited his parents, Tick and Anne. Edna and Dr. A. E. Dickinson returned to the park and have as their houseguest Joan Nielsen from Denmark. A very pleasant birthday dinner was enjoyed by Sibyl Thomason and friends at Mitch's in Cathedral City. Ben and Eleanor Phelan entertained several guests with a cocktail party Saturday evening.

Ramon Park enjoyed a full week of entertainment and excitement that will carry throughout the season as a big program has been planned for its guests.

Elrod Adds New Pottery Exhibit

Arthur Elrod announced today the addition of a group of the famous "marguerite" wildenham Pond Farm Pottery to his permanent exhibit of art collection.

Born in Lyon, France, marguerite wildenham received her art training at the Haubaus, which at that time was under the direction of Walter Gropius. After the required seven years of apprenticeship and study, she received one of the few degrees of master-potter ever given a woman.

Elrod invited the public to view the ceramic creation of this fine artist.

MR. AND MRS. ARNO GLIDDEN of Olympia, Washington, celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary at DeLuxe Trailer Park in Cathedral City, with 150 friends present at the festive occasion. A dinner and entertainment marked the festivities.

Museum Film Friday Night is State Heritage

The program in the Desert Museum at 8 p.m., Friday, will feature a colorful film entitled "California Heritage." Admission is free to the public.

On Saturday in the Museum, also at 8, the second guest lecture program will present Hans Bothe of Riverside, in an illustrated talk on "San Geronimo, Saint of the Pass."

Saturday's field trip will leave at 10 a.m., with Bee Rock Mesa as the destination. Details may be had at the information desk.

Many queries have come in to the Museum concerning the Desert Bighorn Sheep. A good chance of seeing them is at one of the following areas, either in the morning or early evening:

Chino Canyon, above the first trees in the narrower part of the canyon, occasionally as far down-canyon as within a half-mile of the last house; above the Dry Falls in Tachevah Canyon; on the north slope of West Fork Canyon; in Magnesia Springs Canyon; in Wildcat and Carrizo Canyons; and at several places along Palms to Pines Highway from about the 2000 foot level on up to almost Pinyon Flats.

ARNO GLIDDENS MARK GOLDEN ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. Arno Glidden of 116 West 17th St., Olympia, Washington, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary at the DeLuxe Trailer Park in Cathedral City.

Arno Glidden and Christine Shultz were married on November 7, 1905, at Seattle. Mrs. Glidden is a native of Mansfield, Ohio. Mr. Glidden is a true westerner. He was born in Olympia, Washington. His mother, Mary Holeman, was born in Olympia in 1855. Her father, Frank Holeman, came to Washington territory in 1847 and had a part in Washington early history.

Mr. Glidden has been associated all his life with the lumber industry of the Pacific Northwest. He was for many years general manager and part owner of the McCleary Lumber Co. of McCleary and Olympia.

One hundred and fifty friends, most of whom were guests of the DeLuxe Trailer Park were present in the Park's Recreation hall, at their community dinner and Mr. and Mrs. Glidden cut two huge wedding cakes in the traditional manner. A most interesting "This Is Your Life" program was conducted by Lou Weathers and the highlights of the Glidden's lives were featured on this program.

A chorus of ladies consisting of Barbara Fairclough, Glada Kirkpatrick, Ruth Cavanaugh and Lou Laursen, sang "I Love You Truly." They were accompanied on the piano by Lucile Lassen. Carl Kirkpatrick entertained with music on the bells.

A mock wedding in costume was performed by 10 men of the park. They were as follows: Rudy Campbell, minister; Dr. Ray Dewey, groom; Porter Smith, bride; Dr. Dan Perry, best man; Vic Laursen, maid-of-honor; Ed Olerud, bridesmaid; Knute Lassen, father of the bride; Paul Popp, flower girl; John Langley, ring bearer and Guy Oliver, mother of the bride.

The wedding march and music for the community singing was furnished by Bud Fairclough.

HARTFORD, Conn. — An automobile had to be repainted at a cost of $125 because a five-year-old girl tried to clean it. She used nail polish remover.

80 Attend Ham Dinner Party at Sky Ridge

A baked ham dinner with all the trimmings was served to eighty people—park residents and guests—in the Sky Ridge clubhouse in Cathedral City, after which they were entertained by Stanley Little doing impersonations, Lois Lux rendering a piano medley of "Auld Lang Syne," and a community sing.

Mrs. R. L. Gourley entertained at the clubhouse with color slides and lecture on the New England states, followed by movies of Florida, presented by Mr. Gourley. He caught the Florida sunset on celluloid with about a hundred feet of dazzling color. Refreshments were served.

Last week another splendid feature was added in connection with the heated pool—an out-door shower.

Jim and Marguerite Williams surprised the Sky Ridge family last Saturday by bringing from the city a new 23 foot trailer with twin beds.

Lawrence Rusie is a full-fledged Californian as of this week as he went to India and got his driver's license.

A very enjoyable evening was spent last Thursday by members of the Park listening to a tape recording of a concert by a choral group led by the Park owner, Merle Hancock, last July. It was based on church music from its origin to the present time concluding with a hymn composed in 1955.

A creditable showing of hobby exhibits was presented by Sky Ridge residents at the Trailer Rally in Palm Springs. The exhibit was in charge of Frances Rusie.

Young Promoter

EAST HAMPTON, Conn. — Two crying third-graders at Memorial School complained to teachers that they had to pay five cents each to use the playground swings. Investigating, the teachers found that a 10-year-old boy was grabbing swings first at recess and charging for their use. He was put out of business.

Likes to Hunt

THREE RIVERS, Mich. — Mrs. Lula Appleman, who celebrated her 70th wedding anniversary recently, said her husband's hunting trips had reduced their life together by about four years.

Fifth Annual Trailer Rally Attracted 600 Registrants

The fifth annual Palm Springs Trailer Rally was the biggest event of its kind ever held anywhere, according to records kept during the four-day convention. Adding to reservations at opening time on Thursday noon for 572 parking accommodations, there were more than enough late arrivals to push the total parked on the Polo Grounds to over 600. This is a new record for the now nationally famous Palm Springs Trailer Rally.

One of the great attractions of the Rally was the Free Trailer Show where almost 100 newest models of 30 manufacturers were on display. This full half mile of trailer displays was the greatest ever exhibited in a free trailer show anywhere. The importance of such a display is attested to by several manufacturers who now consider this rally second only to the great Los Angeles Trailer Show held early each year.

THE PALM SPRINGS Trailer Rally and Free Trailer Show had the experienced guiding hand of Frank Wellens over the new trailer displays. Wellens and Al Housey, both local residents of Sahara Park, were among the many volunteers who did much to make the rally a success.

Well known in the trailer industry, Wellens has had an important part in many trailer showings at Los Angeles and Cleveland. Out of his long experience, he estimated the crowds attending the Rally and Trailer Show at 26 to 28 thousand persons.

THE RALLY COMMITTEE consisting of Chairman Wilson Hall, Vice Chairman Paul Harrison, Bob Hollister, Bill Vieth and Registrar Clara Vieth will meet with Rally Director Herb Richardson to prepare reports of the 1955 Rally and recommendations for future rallies for consideration of the associated Palm Springs Area Trailer Parks, sponsors.

City Manager R. W. Peterson, addressing the Rally visitors, recalled the first event where a crowd of 150 visitors "rattled around" in the large Playhouse Auditorium and on the 30 acres of Polo Grounds. For the future handling of even larger crowds, Peterson suggested several possibilities which would permit handling even larger numbers of visitors with even better accommodations.

The 1955 Rally attracted the largest number of visiting trailer club groups in its history. This group of experienced trailerites was the most patient with crowded conditions on the Polo Grounds and the most ingenious in meeting their own emergency conditions in the true spirit of good fellowship, Richardson said.

THE MEETING OF Trailer Club members with Col. Richard Hayes on Sunday morning in the auditorium was for the express purpose of giving local trailer clubs information about the Travel Trailer Clubs of America, a parent organization which will express the voices of many clubs and their members for the betterment of travel trailer legislation, park accommodations, and other vital matters.

Magazine, newspaper, and radio representatives covering the Rally were most enthusiastic in their praise of this great annual event for vacation trailer owners and the many others who take this occasion to investigate for themselves what the great American institution of trailering may offer to them.

Planning for the 1956 Palm Springs Trailer Rally and Free Trailer Show will begin at once and in a few months will take form in announcements through The Desert Sun.

Harvest Festival and Bazaar All Day Friday

Friday morning, beginning at 10 a.m., the ladies of the Community Church Circle are holding their Harvest Festival and Bazaar.

Mrs. Merritt Williams and her committee will be serving a snack luncheon all during the day, with sandwiches, cooked beans, salad, cake, pie and coffee.

There will be a food table, toys, aprons, plants and dry arrangements, white elephants, Christmas cards, dates, jelly, mince meat, and other articles too numerous to mention.

Villagers are invited to come and start their Christmas shopping early.

This will be in the Social Hall of the Community Church, with plenty of free parking.

Desert Does Start Ticket Sales for Spaghetti Dinner

Mrs. Pat Cohen is ticket chairman, with Mrs. Duane Stachler as co-chairman, for the Desert Does Spaghetti dinner which will be held at the Elks Lodge, Tuesday, November 22, at 6:30 p.m.

All proceeds will be used to buy Christmas gifts for the handicapped children of Riverside County who are receiving treatment by the therapists of the Elks Mobile Unit.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mutascio, long time Village residents, are preparing the spaghetti.

Tickets are available for all Elks, their ladies and guests.

Members assisting Mrs. Cohen are: Mesdames William Olsen, Art Studebaker, William Scharf, Daniel Flax, Esther Gilbert, William Bigelow, and Wilbur Harrison.

Cockateel Finds Freedom Uncomfortably Unexciting

There was absolutely no doubt that Topper had tired of his whole week of freedom.

Besides the beautifully colored cockateel had lost some of his tail feathers and the rest of his plumage was ruffled and not like it used to be when his mistress, Mrs. Mayten Allen, Outpost Estates, looked after his every need.

But there came a day a week ago when even in the breast of a cockateel there stirred restful emotions—a longing for freedom. To be on the wing under these blue desert skies. To soar and dive, to become acquainted with other birds Topper could hear and see flying just outside his window.

Mrs. Allen, with Topper on her shoulder, stepped into the backyard of her home. It was just the opportunity Topper had been dreaming about in that little bird head of his.

He fluttered his wings. He spread them out and flapped them vigorously. Before he knew it he was sailing through the air. He was off on a freedom binge. A binge that was to last forever.

One week later, after search had been forsaken by his distraught mistress, a forlorn little cockateel was seen perched on the roof of Mrs. C. O. Sodergren's home at 260 Vista Chino.

Topper had seen the world—at least three miles, or slightly more than that, and he was tired. Mrs. Sodergren called to the bird and to her utter amazement he flew right down off the roof to perch on her shoulder.

Inquiry at the police station revealed the name of the owner. Soon Topper was back home with Mrs. Allen.

"He had had all the freedom he wanted very obviously," Mrs. Allen

Luncheon Hostesses Plan Tables

When Edith Small's newest fashions are paraded in El Mirador on Tuesday, a full house is expected. Reservations are pouring in fast this last week before the show. Palm Springs Playhouse Guild is sponsoring the fabulous showing, and promises not only a top fashion presentation but decorations for the luncheon party are being especially designed for the show.

Among those assembling their tables this week is Mrs. Norman Waters, who is hostess to a group of close friends, although she will not be able to attend the show because of a broken leg. Those sitting at her table, but missing their hostess greatly, will be: Mmes. E. K. Bishop, R. H. Fleet (who is due home from Europe the day before the fashion show), George Roberson, John Dawson, Charles Becker (just back from Elizabeth Arden's Arizona Maine Chance), Nate Milnor, Fred Karlen, Jack Bligh, Robert Singer and Gordon Prentice.

Mrs. Harry Clatworthy has invited as her guests: Mmes. Ginny Simms, Dan (Phyllis) Flax and her sister-in-law, Mack Kufferman; William Ellis, Harry Berger, George Lovett, Joel Stone, Robert Backstrom, Virginia McLaughlin, William Cody, Arthur Pollard, Vernon Brown, Roy Burnett and Lynn Briggs.

A large number of Smoke Tree colonists are sitting together as guests of Mrs. Max Schwab. They will include: Mmes. Paul Helms, Spencer Biddle, Arthur Bailey, Kirk Besser, W. H. Butler, William Dean, Louis Earle, Della Gates, William Geary, James Gilpin and guest, Frederick Grant, John Haman, Dorothy Hoover, Hoyt Leisure, John Luccareni, Horace Major, Fred Markham, W. O. McKay, Henry Reed, Charles Stimson, Francis Welsh, J. W. Warren, Channing Wells and Max Wyman.

A table of 30 has been reserved by Thunderbird homeowners. Mrs. Tom Holland is to have 10; Mrs. Russell Wade, 12; and Mrs. Arnold Rumwell, 8.

Rev. Father Michael O'Connor, former pastor of Our Lady of Solitude, spent the first part of the week visiting with friends, here.

Rafaela Valdez left Monday morning for Loma Linda hospital where she will undergo heart surgery during the week.

She described his condition, the lost tail feathers—"Topper had been so proud of them," she recalled. And she added "a very bedraggled Topper he was, too."

He is all right today though. The bird doctor filled him full of vitamins and anti-cold tablets. And Topper took them rather meekly, too.

CoCo Cobana Apartments Ready the First of Year

Almost completed are the new apartment units being built by the Bishop-France Corporation on the other side of Smoke Tree. Located at 1881 Araby Road, they are expected to be ready for occupancy by the first of January. It has been named CoCo Cobana.

Consisting of a home for Mr. and Mrs. Rowland G. France and a home for Mr. and Mrs. Edward F. Bishop, with a glass-enclosed lobby between, the L-shaped buildings will have five studio apartments and five doubles, complete with kitchens and fenced lanais. Each unit has its own carport and daily maid service. The spacious rooms are being decorated in modern Chinese.

The first apartment has been leased to the Thomas Flemings and will be ready for them in December.

CoCo Cobana, with a magnificent view of the mountains, will be of pink limestone and wood, painted cocoa color, and charmingly landscaped. It stands on five acres of ground. The Bishop-France Corporation owns an adjoining five acres and plans to build 30 units eventually.

There is a 44x21 swimming pool, built by Libbott, and there will be wired music to the poolside. There

Mr. and Mrs. Charles McDonald of 1070 South Calle Marcus left by car on Wednesday for Stanford University to be with their son, Jack, a Junior majoring in engineering. He is also a member of the Stanford band and will participate in all campus activities leading to the big game Saturday. The McDonalds will be on hand to join in all the fun of the week, returning home on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan O'Brien of San Jose were visiting with friends in the Village for a few days. They were among the many who attended the turkey dinner at St. Louis church in Cathedral City on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Benoist of San Francisco were in Palm Springs for a few days recently and entertained a few friends with a cocktail party Saturday evening in their home at 385 Alta Vista Road. On Wednesday the Benoists flew back to San Francisco, expecting to return in about two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Lindberg of Cathedral City have Mrs. Lindberg's mother, Mrs. Lena Schreiber, of Portland as their house guest. She plans to be here for another month. Over the weekend the Lindbergs had relatives from Los Angeles visiting them. They were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Anderson, and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hartmann.

Parents Praised for Response to School Programs

Children in Palm Springs schools can be thankful that they have parents who are interested in their schools. Such is the consensus as principals and teachers total up the results of the observance of American Education Week in the Palm Springs Unified School District. Two types of activity held the spotlight during the week.

Each of the elementary schools made special efforts to provide an individual conference between the teacher and the parent for the purpose of evaluating the progress so far this year of each individual pupil.

MRS. MARY MITCHELL, elementary curriculum coordinator, said this week that her reports indicated a very high percentage of response from parents in keeping their appointments. She stressed, also, that where parents had been unable to keep an appointment, an effort would be made to arrange another conference immediately.

Another major part of the observance during the week were meetings sponsored by the Parent-Teacher group in each school. Principal speakers at these meetings were Dr. Wallace R. Muelder, district superintendent, and Paul M. Summit, guidance director.

DR. MUELDER addressed the Canyons School P. T. A. on Tuesday and also made appearances on the programs at Frances Stevens School and at Nellie Coffman Jr. High. He also spoke at the Desert Hot Springs Rotary Club luncheon on the significance of American Education Week.

Paul Summit was guest speaker for the programs at Frances Stevens School and at Desert Hot Springs School. A feature of the program at Katherine Finch School was the appearance of Katherine Finch herself and a panel discussion composed of parents and teachers on the subject of modern methods of teaching reading.

Dr. Muelder, on completion of the week's meetings and conferences expressed great satisfaction with the response of parents to the programs which had been planned. He complimented parents and townspeople saying: "The townspeople are to be commended for the manner in which they responded to the programs which had been planned to assist them in understanding their children and the many problems of the schools. We in the schools are well pleased."

ST. THERESA'S FOOTBALL squad will go after its fourth victory of the season tomorrow in a game with the Boys Club eleven at 2:15 p.m., at the high school grid field. On Sunday, another game is scheduled here, at St. Theresa School, with St. Joseph's of Fontana as the opponent. The season will end

High School Highlights

(Editor's Note: The Palm Springs High School column this week is written by Jeanie Staley and Bur Rosin and submitted by the High School Journalism class.)

Teachers are human too. Much to our amazement we discovered this last Friday at the pep rally prior to our game with Beaumont, which of course, we won.

Accustomed to being entertained by students we were pleasantly surprised when five talented faculty members serenaded us with dance band music. They were persuaded to perform by the thought that this might soften the blow received by students when report cards were issued that morning.

HENRY GREELEY, who is otherwise occupied as our principal, portrayed the hot clarinetist, Way Reynolds, vice principal, strummed a guitar, and musical instructor, Gustav Patzner provided background for the quintet with his string base. From the science department came the drummer, Ralph Watt, and last but not least, P. E. teacher and pianist, George Scholl.

Though such an outstanding performance could not be equalled, the staff of our yearbook, the Chia, presented a skit to promote sales and attendance at the game that night. Advance sales of the Chia began last Monday.

AFTER A DEPRESSING lull in school spirit, rooters came back to cheer the team to victory at the Hemet game and have followed through ever since. As at previous away games, we had, Friday night, two rooters buses and an outstanding attendance despite the dampness and threats of rain. We are confident that this spirit will continue. Last Monday, at a Girls' League meeting, several freshmen girls graciously modeled new Lanz styles which are ever popular with the high school girl. The fashion show was emceed by Beth Mills, who is making plans for a style show at each Girls' League meeting. Models for the next show will come from the Sophomore Class.

ALSO OCCURRING on Monday was a joint meeting of the G.A.A. board and Lettermen's Club of-

YOUR MONEY'S WORTH

By SYLVIA PORTER

If you're typical, you use the installment plan to help finance the purchase of goods you need or want.

More than 60 per cent of America's families do. Buying on time has become one of the great activities of the American family—and most significantly, today it's a sign that the family is prosperous and raising its living standards rather than a sign that the family is in trouble and can't make ends meet.

Now assuming you are a devoted user of the installment plan, imagine a system of lending institutions operating under a single Federal Government agency and dedicated to the job of supplying you—the consumer—with the credit you need to buy the goods you need.

Imagine a new Washington "parent" organization set up by Congress to police lending institutions in the installment credit field.

IMAGINE THIS SYSTEM and its implications to you. For the odds are increasing that just such a network of lending institutions will be created by Congress in the not too distant future in order to:

Regulate the flow of consumer credit so its extension and expansion is more uniform and yet it is kept prudent and healthy;

Make more money available to individual borrowers at less cost than is now necessary in many instances;

Guarantee a steadily expanding flow of funds from private lenders into consumer loans.

AT VALDOSTA, Georgia, a fortnight ago, James K. Vardaman, one of the governors of the Federal Reserve System, made a speech before the Georgia Bankers Association.

Considering the influential position of the speaker and the significance of what he told the bankers, it is astounding that his address has received so little attention.

For Vardaman chose this platform—of all "hot" spots—to send warning to the nation's bankers that policy-makers at the highest level of Government are considering unprecedented broad and permanent Federal regulation of consumer credit. And he told them not to "be shocked or surprised or too upset" when Congress is asked to pass this type of law.

The Government has moved heavily into the field of housing credit. Home loans are subject to control by several powerful U.S. agencies.

The Government has moved heavily into the field of business loans. Through its power to regulate the supply and cost of money, the Federal Reserve Board has immense control over the ease and cost of business loans.

BUT THE FEDERAL Government has not—yet!—moved directly into the field of installment loans. For a while, the Federal Reserve Board regulated installment loan terms through its war-born "Regulation W". But that rule is now dead.

Today, despite the fact that consumer credit has become of crucial importance to our entire economy and installment loans alone now top $26 billion, Federal controls are only exceedingly indirect and few states have laws specifically dealing with this type of credit.

Now Vardaman has sounded the first signal. After reading his speech, I checked with my informants in Washington to find out how much of a trial balloon this was. It was a real trial balloon—and Vardaman consulted many of Washington's top economic experts before he spoke.

WHAT'S MORE, Vardaman spoke in startlingly blunt words. "Nearly all major changes in financial customs effected by Congress in the last 40 years—especially those from which the economy has derived greatest benefit—have been opposed by bankers," he remarked (to the bankers). He didn't soften that much by adding, "Bankers are not always wrong."

Nor did he lighten the blow by suggesting that when Congress tackles the new legislation, the bankers had better realize they "cannot whip something with nothing" and they should try for reasonable compromise.

Installment credit is a vital part of our economic life—and it will become more so. I've been wondering how long it would be before the Federal Government would move in. Vardaman has given us a first clue. Sooner than many—particularly many bankers—now suspect.

"BACHELOR'S SOCK"

The sock in this Doodle belongs to Dr. Kitzenger, who's the President of the Bachelor's Club, in my neighborhood. We meet every Friday in the Lucky Spot Tavern on West 88th St. but Dr. K. couldn't make it this week. He had to catch up with sewing and mending. I missed the meeting too because the hamburger I was cooking for dinner caught fire. Our Treasurer, Mr. Cossayuna, would certainly have showed up but he fell out of his window when he was hanging out his wash and sprained his back. The only one who showed up was Dr. Schweine but, being married, he isn't a Member and we won't let him join. If we did it'd just make him feel bad when he saw the freedom that we bachelors enjoy.

Sputterings

IT WAS JUST 20 years ago that night baseball was introduced into the majors at Cincinnati.

At the time, it drew varying comments from other club owners and officials and players, who thought that it was a novelty and it would wear off.

It wasn't a novelty, however, for with the success of night baseball in Cincinnati the other clubs, for the most part, took up the plan, installed lights and began to schedule nocturnal contests.

Actually night baseball has been the savior for many teams, just like it has helped in the minors, where it was tried first.

More and more night games have found their way into the schedules and today the attendance figures for these have reached into the millions from the early-day totals of thousands.

The Philadelphia Phillies have just announced their 1956 schedule and the night game is really accentuated. The Phils WON'T play any weekend afternoon games at home at all. Only 12 single day games were listed for Saturdays and Sundays.

That's quite a change from the early days and if the trend keeps up we may find that major league baseball will be played at night only.

We're not for that, however, although the night schedule certainly has helped the clubs at the box-office, which is what keeps them in business.

OTHER SPORTS activities are conducted at night, with harness racing drawing a big benefit from it. For the most part, dog racing also is conducted at night although most dog tracks do have matinee affairs.

They tried running races on the flat at night, too, but it still hasn't met with success.

Many football games are night affairs, particularly in the high schools, and boxing for years, with some championship bout exceptions has been staged at night. Basketball is another nocturnal sport, but the field of play here is indoors as is the sport of bowling, billiards and certain other minor sports.

WE STILL like our baseball in the afternoons. There's nothing more relaxing than to go to the ball park on a Summer day and watch the national game in the sunlight. Besides, one doesn't lose his sleep this way.

Sugar Ray Robinson On Raw Meat Diet

GREENWOOD LAKE, N. Y., (AP) — Sugar Ray Robinson has been placed on a raw meat and raw egg diet so that he'll be as vicious as a "pit bulldog" when he enters the ring against middleweight champion Bob Olson on December 9, manager George Gainford said today. Robinson weighed 164 pounds after sparring four rounds Wednesday.

MORRISON ON GOLF

Consider Others on the Course

TO OUR PATRONS

The Pebble Beach Golf Course, while open to the public in a limited manner, is conducted as a country club property.

We therefore ask your cooperation in the following matters:

1. No matter what weather prevails, please wear a shirt, jersey or sweater while on the golf course.
2. Please see that divots are replaced.
3. Caddy carts must be kept off the greens and out of bunkers.

DEL MONTE PROPERTIES CO.
Pebble Beach, California

The world famous championship Pebble Beach Golf course is open to the public under Country club rules. To follow Country club rules on all public courses is a big advantage to every golfer on the grounds.

By ALEX J. MORRISON

Author of "A New Way to Better Golf," Teacher of Champions

THE SIGN picture shown above was made some time ago when I was at Pebble Beach with Frank Stranahan and his wife, Ann. The subject of the sign—conduct on the golf course, is most important to all golfers.

Let me tell you why. Briefly, you get out of golf just what you put into it. This point was constantly emphasized in my early apprenticeship as clubmaker and assistant pro. This training was had at the Los Angeles Country Club, one of the best golf plants always operated under highly efficient management, with a large exclusive, yet democratic, membership. Everything about this exceptionally fine club proved that it paid to observe the rules and etiquette of golf.

I soon learned that all club swingers do not believe this. In serving as manager-pro at a public course I had to deal with many hackers who persisted in being exceptions to all rules. This amazing experience strengthened my conviction about the advantages to all golfers through applying the Golden Rule.

MORE RECENTLY my advice was sought about the management of a public course.

Ruth McCullah Wins Thunderbird Title

Final Round Wins Crown in Invitational

Barbara Romack Second, Two Behind, Peggy Rutledge Next

Charming Ruth McCullah, of Riviera Country Club in Los Angeles, overcame some bad putting yesterday at Thunderbird Country Club, to score a 36-hole total of 157 and win the fifth annual Ladies Invitational Tournament.

Strength in her iron shots, which have previously won her two California State Championships, two State Midwinter Championships, and five or six Southern California Championships (all amateur competition) gave her a two stroke lead over second-place Barbara Romack, the going-in favorite.

Barbara, who was 1954 National Women's Champion, and last year's Ladies Thunderbird Invitational winner, shot five over the first day and six over par the second, to give her a 79-80-159.

In third place in actual stroke scores was Peggy Rutledge of Los Angeles Country Club, who posted a 63-78-141, four strokes behind the winner. Mrs. Rutledge, who finished her two rounds a day before the winner and runnerup, subtracted her four handicap each round, and emerged low net winner of the three day event. Both Miss Romack and Miss McCullah are golfers of such caliber and experience that they carry no handicap.

Following Mrs. Rutledge in the low net competition was Millie Myerson, of Brentwood Country Club, with an 80-73-153. Third low net scorer was Mary Coughran, of Annandale, whose handicap of 12 lowered her 90-88-178 to a 154.

The winner, Miss McCullah, started playing golf in 1941 in Brentwood, taking lessons from the club's teaching pro, Joe Robeling. A year later, she joined Riviera Country Club, and had lowered her Women's Southern California Golf Association handicap to 10. In their register, her handicap stayed at 10 until 1947. However, at Riviera her play improved so rapidly that the 10 was scratched to nothing three years after she took her first lesson.

Of the three yearly Association tournaments, Miss McCullah has won 10 since playing the circuit. She played the Thunderbird course previously, and had the feel of the greens well enough to bring her victory yesterday. She three-putted three greens, and four-putted one, but controlled the others to overcome a six over on the 14th hole, which would have tied her with Barbara Romack.

IT'S ALWAYS LEAP YEAR FOR THE BALL CARRIERS

TRAPPED as he headed toward the line on a ball-carrying stunt, Doug Peters of U.C.L.A. takes to the air for a gain during game with Washington in Los Angeles. The Uclans just got by, 19 to 17, with a field goal in the last few moments of the game. (International)

County Grid Season Ends Friday Night

Indians Journey to San Jacinto for Closing Game

Tomorrow, four high school football fields will feel digging cleats and bouncing bodies; the stadiums will resound with teen-age shouts, but for the last time of the year, Riverside County league play will be over.

Palm Springs' Indians, brimming with confidence following the drubbing they handed their two opponents in as many weeks, will enter San Jacinto's den of Tigers as one point underdogs.

COACH CLARE BALLAGH, in taking his Indian eleven to San Jacinto, is well aware that a break for him could cinch the league's third spot. He also knows that a similar break against him would give the coveted third place title to the Tigers.

San Jacinto's coach, Bruce Munro, started his team out at the first of the season with the loudest bang this side of White Sands Proving Grounds, but they bogged down after a 14-13 loss to present league-leading Banning, and eked a 0-0 split against Perris, the number seven outfit. So Palm Springs, which started slow but is finishing strong, should take San Jacinto, whose performance has been just the opposite.

THE LEAGUE LEADERS, Banning's Bronchos, close the season with their traditional rivals, Beaumont's Cougars. The Cougars are in last place, and though the rivalry series has seen many pregame predictions upset, tomorrow's game at Beaumont should leave Banning on top and undefeated, edging the cellarmen by a 13 point margin.

Coachella Valley high school's Arabs will play host, in a brutal way, to Hemet's Bulldogs. They should beat the highlanders by at least two touchdowns, and possibly three. The Arabs, who have been plagued by bad breaks that kept them out of their predicted top slot in RCL standings, love to romp over visiting teams while in the Date Bowl. They seem to think a final game blast would leave the seniors on the team with a token memory of greatness, if not a real one.

THE BATTLE of the late season wild cats, the Perris Panthers and the Elsinore Tigers, promises to be as closely fought and the final score as much of a mystery as the Palm Springs-San Jacinto tussle.

Both the Tigers and the Panthers left their respective arenas last week without suffering the sting of defeat. Though Perris has yet to win a game, and Elsinore has scored victories over Palm Springs and Hemet, the same slow-starting-fast-finishing, and fast-starting-slow-finishing combination seems to be working for these teams as it is for the Palm Springs-San Jacinto lads.

IF PALM SPRINGS and Perris win their respective clashes, as recent performances dictate, the 1955 Riverside County League standings should close out, about 10:30 tomorrow night in the following manner:

Banning.
Coachella.
Palm Springs.
San Jacinto.
Elsinore.
Hemet.
Perris.
Beaumont.

The last four teams will probably be tied for fifth and sixth place, Elsinore and Hemet in the top tie.

SMC to be Polo Headquarters for West Coast

Shadow Mountain Club will be polo headquarters for the west coast this winter. The Palm Springs Polo Association has scheduled matches every weekend, starting November 26, for teams from San Francisco, Long Beach, Beverly Hills, La Jolla and two local teams.

Willie Tevis, entering his 48th year as a national figure in polo circles and a top player brought his stable from San Francisco to the Shadow Mountain Stables for the winter. He and his teammates, Ted Heller, Fred Cox and David Moore, have matches set for every weekend of the winter season.

NEXT WEEKEND, the San Franciscans will compete in a four team round robin match. The other teams will be Shadow Mountain Polo Club, Green Acres Polo Club, led by Tony Veen, five goal man from Beverly Hills, and the Red Diamond Club from the Village.

Shadow Mountain won their last out in a three game round robin with the Red Diamonds and the Yuma (Arizona) Polo Club. The members of the winning team are Lisle Nixon, Ted Pierce and Lloyd Phillips.

TEVIS AND HIS TEAM members are all San Francisco businessmen, and commute each Friday afternoon in Tevis' plane for the two days of tournaments. Tevis' wife, Wren, and his daughter, Sandy, live in the Tevis home at Tamarisk Country Club.

Veen, who is expected to recruit his team from Tamarisk and Beverly Hills, moved his stable to the Village yesterday for the winter. He will spend much of his time here.

The Palm Springs Polo Association will continue to use Shadow Mountain Polo Field until such time as the city's Polo Grounds are available for the weekly matches. They hope to bring the matches from Palm Desert to the Village.

Bids Go Out for L.A. Golf Open

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Entry blanks for the 30th annual Los Angeles Open Golf Tournament were in the mail today to golfers throughout the nation.

The tourney is set for Jan. 5-9, inclusive, at the Rancho Santa Fe course. About 400 golfers are expected to enter, including nearly all of the "name" pros.

Traffic Judge to Race at Anita

ARCADIA (AP)—Traffic Judge, one of the season's top three-year-olds, is coming here from the East for the December 26 opening of Santa Anita Race Track's winter meeting, it was announced today.

Traffic Judge, an early favorite for the estimated $170,000 Santa Anita Maturity on January 28, heads a string of some 25 Clifford Moores color-bearers scheduled to take part in the meeting.

At the same time, it was reported that Poonia II and St. Vincent probably will not run here this year. Poonia II won last season's $100,000-guaranteed Santa Anita Handicap.

Odds on Bruins Drop to 3 Points in Los Angeles

LOS ANGELES, (AP)—Local followers of the annual cross-town rivalry between UCLA and Southern California failed today to go along with national odds which make UCLA a 10-point choice for Saturday's game.

Local oddsmakers, aware that past performances mean little in such great natural rivalries, were more guarded in their appraisal of the outcome. They picked UCLA by a slight edge of one to three points because of the Bruins' better season record.

So great is local interest in the grid fracas that more than 101,000 fans will crowd into Memorial Coliseum, although the game is being televised both locally and nationally as the TV game of the week.

Sanders Calls Off Drills for Bruins

LOS ANGELES, (AP)—UCLA Coach Henry Red Sanders called off today's drill by his Bruins for the Southern California clash and said they would practice no more before the big game Saturday.

"The squad looks tired and 'stove up,'" Sanders said. He said he and his staff decided further practice would not be beneficial because of his team's general fatigue and injuries.

Nashua to Rest Up At Clairborne Farm

NEW YORK, (AP)—Nashua, the late William Woodward Jr.'s great colt, will winter at the Clairborne Farm at Paris, Ky., this year, trainer Sunny Jim Fitzsimmons announced today. Fitzsimmons said Nashua will resume racing next year if the executors and trustees for the $5,000,000 Belair Stable desire.

Letner Wins 1955 Title

SAN JOSE, (AP)—Danny Letner, Downey, won the 1955 Pacific Coast late model stock car racing title, according to final official point standings released today by the western regional headquarters of NASCAR.

WILLIE'S WOWING 'EM AGAIN

THAT little riding man, Willie Hartack, leading all U. S. jockeys in winners this year, gets congrats from Willie Shoemaker (left), the national champ last year, after Hartack had strged another sensational riding performance at Laurel race track. Hartack had six winners on Saturday and came back on the following Monday with four more. Hartack is nearing 400 victories. (International)

Hartack Rides Three Winners

PIMLICO, Md., (AP)—Willie Hartack, the nation's leading jockey, rode three winners at the opening of Pimlico's 16-day fall meeting Wednesday to boost his total of winners to 385 this year. Hartack is considered virtually certain to become the second jockey in history to ride 400 winners in one year.

SAM IS BUSY

SINCE HIS RETURN he has sold 160 acres of fine land for only $17,600; a 40 acre subdivision for $40,000 and has in escrow another large acreage deal.
MANY PALM SPRINGS brokers bring their clients to Sam for acreage. Why? Because Sam loves acreage. He loves to find buried section markers; dig test holes to show you the type of soil. He can tell you what soils are best adapted for. His agricultural maps tell you things you need to know. He knows the depths to water in most areas. He knows land values — what they were in 1932, 1942 and now. He shows you how he made money for everyone he has sold acreage to — fortunes in fact for many investors. No stock in recent years has done as well as some of Sam's acreage investments. A $2800 investment in 1946 is now worth $300,000. We prove our almost unbelievable statements. Sam has lived here 24 years. If you have a fine Cadillac car would you want a novice repairing or working on it? If you want a land investment why not come to Sam. He is not a novice.

We have now the following to offer:

- 100 acres, house, deep well, road, close — only $25,000 with terms.
- 360 acres in 40 acre pieces up, for $150 acre — opposite a big ranch development, highway, electric power and railroad. Fine for clean industry — farming or lower priced subdivision.
- 30 acres on Palm Springs-Indio highway for $850 per acre.
- 40 level acres, rich ground, closest available ground to Cathedral City for $770 per acre. This piece alone is worth $1500 an acre right now and will be worth $4000 an acre a few years hence. Many more buys.

Blame for High Traffic Toll Rests with Young and Old

EDITOR'S NOTE: Traffic accidents last year killed 36,000 Americans. President Eisenhower's Committee for Traffic Safety is promoting a second annual safe driving campaign in the hope of reducing the toll. The month-long campaign culminates with Safe Driving Day, December 1. Following is the second of three dispatches on causes of traffic accidents and suggested cures.

By JOSEPH L. MYLER
United Press Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, (U.P.) — Who are the worst violators of traffic safety rules? The figures on street and highway killings supply the answer:

The young and the old. In 1954, the traffic death rate on a population basis for the 15-24 age group was 36.9 per 100,000 compared to 23.3 for all age groups.

This 15-24 death rate showed the greatest increase for any age group — a jump by 1954 of 624 per cent over the 1913-17 base period. The increase for all other groups was 233 percent.

THE DEATH RATE for the age group 65 and over was 38.6 per 100,000 in 1954. This was a bit larger than the 15-24 rate, but it represented an increase over 1913-17 of only 188 percent.

Suggested explanations: More youngsters are driving than ever before. Among them are the hot-rodders. The young could be the best drivers from a standpoint of natural skill and reflexes. But they are the worst from a standpoint of training, psychological maturity, common courtesy, responsibility, and ability to hold their liquor.

THE DEATH FIGURES for persons 65 and older reflect a large number of pedestrian killings. More than one-third of pedestrians killed in traffic accidents are over 65. As people age, their "reaction times" slow down and their eyes become less able to adjust to glare. Having survived so long, the elderly become careless.

What were cars doing when fatal accidents occurred? Safety Council surveys show 18 percent, the largest single category, were exceeding the posted safe speed limit.

Another 12 percent were speeding in a relative sense—i.e. going faster than safety permitted under the specific circumstances.

In nine percent of accidents that left somebody dead, a driver failed to keep to the right of the center line.

IN EIGHT PERCENT, the killer car or truck did not have the right of way.

Seven percent were lumped under the heading "Other improper driving." Traffic authorities are not satisfied with statistics, based on spot surveys and inadequate reporting, which show that only six percent of fatal accidents involved driving while drunk. They believe drunk driving causes considerably higher percentage of street and highway deaths.

They also blame walking while drunk for a big share of pedestrian deaths. A study by Dr. S. R. Gerber, coroner of Cuyahoga County, Cleveland, Ohio, showed that of 992 pedestrians killed in traffic 49 percent had been drinking.

WHEN DO MOST FATAL traffic accidents occur? They zoom at night. Thirteen deaths per 100,000 vehicle miles occur at night compared to five in daytime. Of pedestrian deaths, 63 percent happen after dark.

What is the role of speed? The figures say 68 percent of vehicles in fatal accidents were going less than 50 miles an hour. The moral: you're not safe just because you're not exceeding the posted limit.

For one thing, as a veteran motorist said, "There is always that so-and-so behind you with the bad brakes and bum reflexes or that other so-and-so coming your way on the wrong side of the line on a hill."

And in the long history of motorism there never has been a vehicle with so little horsepower and speed that it couldn't smash or crush the life out of you.

The Escalante, Utah's river of arches, makes such sharp loops and turns in places that it can travel half a mile yet be only 50 yards from where it started.

SAW DUST FILLING SUPREME (makes about 4 servings)

1 cup (6-7 oz. can) well-drained corned tuna (or diced cooked ham, turkey, or chicken)

2 teaspoons horse-radish 2 tablespoons sliced ripe olives 1 tablespoon grated cheese 1/4 cup CARNATION SOUR CREAM Pepper to taste

Blend all ingredients together. Chill in refrigerator about 1 hour. Spread over buttered toast or buns. Serve with tall, cool glasses of protein-rich Carnation Homogenized Vitamin D Milk and it's a busy-day feast. Be prepared to refill those glasses, too. Once folks taste that cream-in-every drop Carnation flavor, they always come back for seconds.

"BEGONE, VARLET!"

I've never thought much about the proper way to eat an olive, have you? I just automatically pick it up in my fingers. However, did you know that the olive was once so unfamiliar to the common man that it was used to unmask an impostor? Cardinal Richelieu drove from his table a guest who was posing as a nobleman because the man helped himself to olives with a fork.

HINT FOR LIMP LINGERIE!

Here's an easy way to restore that nice, crisp, full look to a wilted crinoline petticoat. Wash gently by hand in lukewarm suds and let it drip dry stretched over an open upturned umbrella. It really works!

Of course, when I'm feeling a bit limp myself, I pep up with Carnation Homogenized Vitamin D Milk. I love its fresh flavor. Try it, will you?
